

Unlocking the solution to a stress free exhibition

Who We Are

TurnKey Exhibition Services™ is an independent division of The Publishers Association. It was created in 2000 to provide publishers - large and small, members and non-members of the PA - with a one-stop exhibition service.

We know that international book fairs are an important part of your marketing plan and represent a substantial investment. TurnKey Exhibition Services™ offers an efficient and cost-effective service to reduce the amount of time you spend organising your participation.

What We Do

■ Stand rental

Simply choose the stand size you want and we will handle all correspondence with the Fair organisers.

■ Catalogue entry

If you are exhibiting for the first time or would like new copy for the catalogue, just send it to us and we will make sure it is included.

■ Furniture, lighting and carpet

Most stand packages contain enough furniture to adequately equip the stand. However, if you wish to upgrade this or hire different/additional items, we will order these for you and make sure they are ready and waiting on your stand prior to your arrival.

■ Shipping

Through our nominated shipper, we can provide a consolidated service from the shipper's warehouse to your stand. For an additional fee, we can arrange to collect the shipment from your office or warehouse. Once the fair is over we will be happy to organise for your display material to be returned to you.

■ Stand decoration

Let us take the hassle out of setting up and decorating your stand, so that you can do those last-minute jobs in the office and arrive at the fair to find everything ready for you.

■ Hotel accommodation

We will negotiate special hotel rates where possible, or advise publishers to use the Book Fair's official housing bureau or a travel agent appointed by us.

■ Other services

We can also arrange additional exhibitor passes, parking permits, stand assistants, meeting room hire, stand receptions, stand catering etc.

■ On-site support

Rest assured that our job does not end on the opening day of the Fair. We will be at your service throughout to look after you and your stand.
